A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a courtyard. The scene is framed by two large, ornate pillars on either side, decorated with blue, green, and purple bands. A series of arches in shades of yellow, orange, and green lead from the foreground into the background. In the center, a set of blue and white steps leads up to a small arched doorway. The ground is a mix of green and yellow, suggesting grass and a path. In the upper right corner, there are some colorful leaves and a small branch. The overall style is bright and child-friendly.

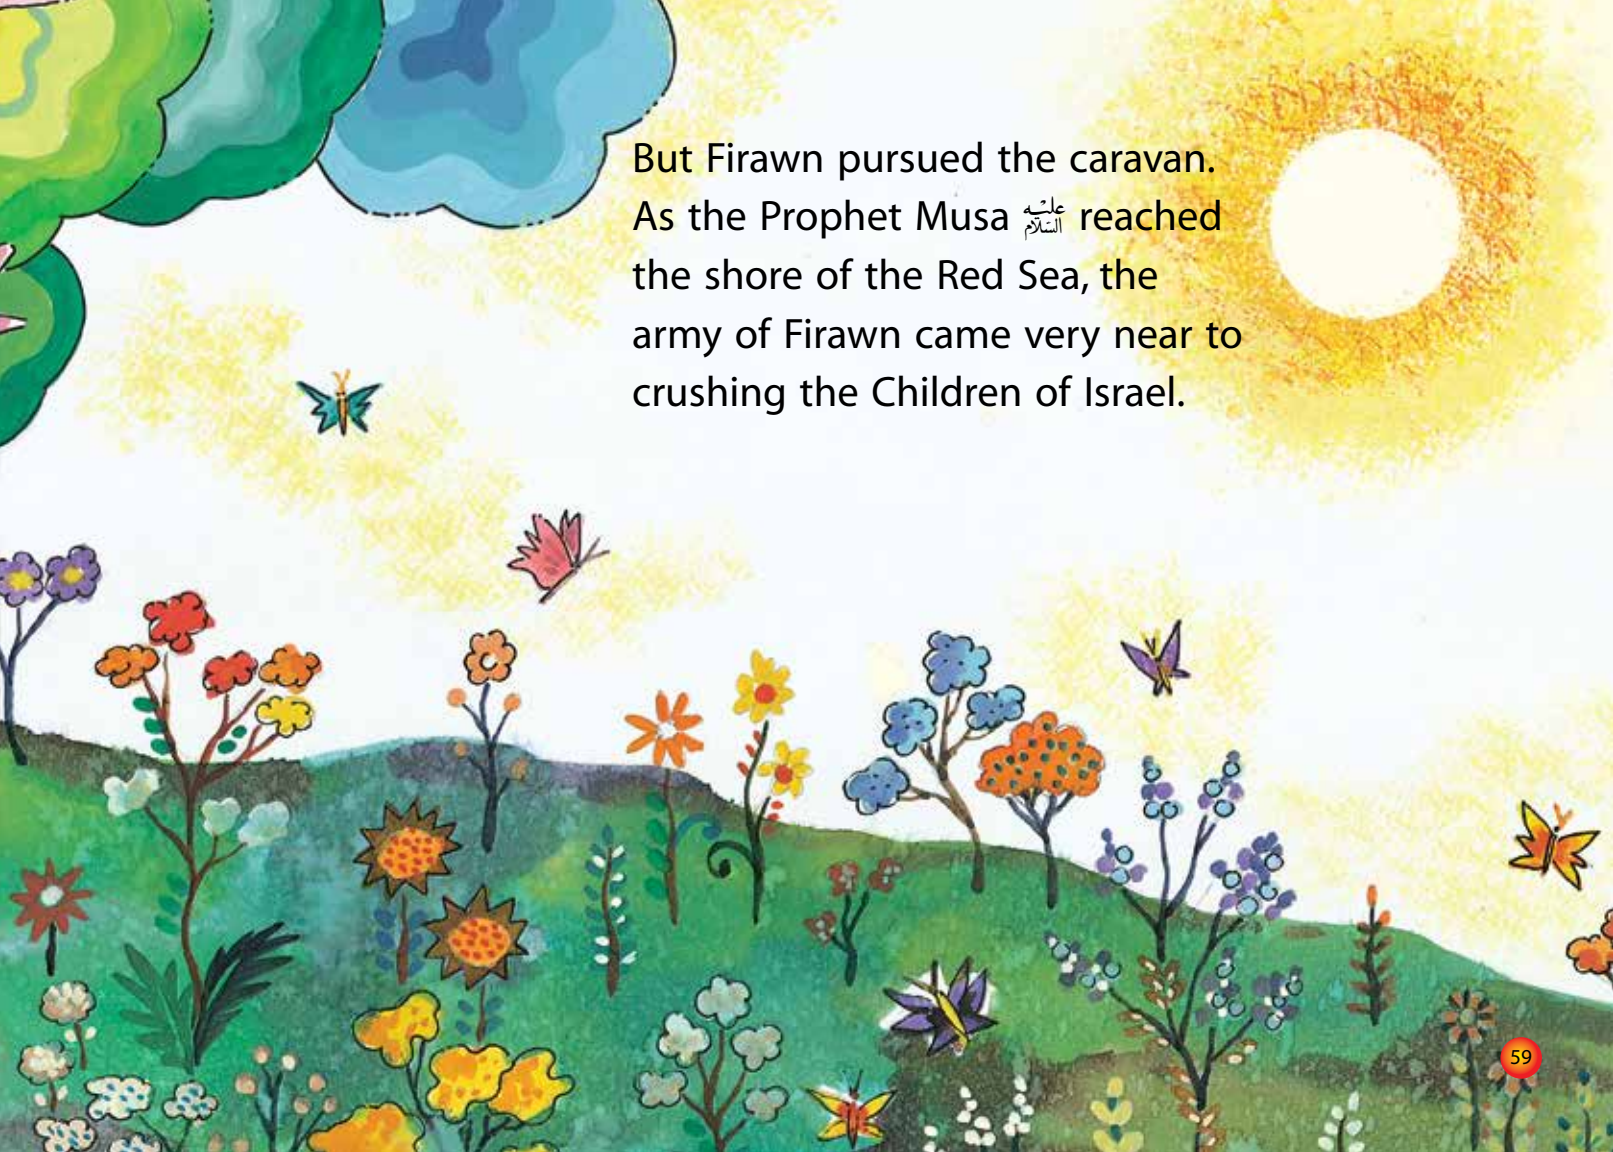

Allah gave the Prophet Musa عليه السلام several miracles and asked him to go to Firawn with these signs and give His message to Firawn, who had made himself a tyrant in the land.

Firawn called his best magicians to outdo the Prophet Musa عليه السلام. When the magicians threw down their ropes and sticks, they looked like snakes of all sizes.
Musa عليه السلام was horrified, as the snakes
seemed to coil and uncoil around him.

But Allah commanded Musa عليه السلام to throw down his staff. As Musa عليه السلام did so, all of a sudden, it became a huge snake. What was more amazing was that it began to eat up all the other snakes one after another, until it had eaten them all up.

But Firawn pursued the caravan.
As the Prophet Musa عليه السلام reached the shore of the Red Sea, the army of Firawn came very near to crushing the Children of Israel.
