

This is the continuation of the story of the Prophet Yusuf عليه السلام.
In the last book, The Pious Man and His Sons, we saw how Yusuf عليه السلام was thrown in a well by his brothers and ultimately brought to Egypt, where he was bought by a noble prince whose name was Aziz.
After some years, although Yusuf # was innocent, Aziz's wife imprisoned the Prophet Yusuf عليه السلام.

Prison opened another chapter in the life of the Prophet Yusuf عليه السلام.
Here he met two prisoners. They were servants in the royal court, who had displeased the king.

No one was able to say what this unusual dream meant. At that time, at the request of the cup bearer, Yusuf عليه السلام interpreted the dream.
