

Qur'anic Sciences and Themes of the Qur'an

Dr. Khalid M. Shaikh

Contents

Preface	xi
---------	----

Part I: Ulum al-Qur'an

① Authenticity & Finality of the Qur'ān	3
② Transmission & Preservation of the Qur'ān	9
③ Form, language & style of the Qur'ān	14
④ The Qur'ān: A miracle of linguistic excellence	20
⑤ The style of the Quran & the Nature of its Message	24
⑥ Study of the Qur'ān	33
⑦ Rules of recitation	38
⑧ Etiquette with the Qur'ān	49

Part II: Islam & Iman (Belief)

⑨ Understanding the Meaning of Islam	57
⑩ Islam; an outlook on life	62
⑪ Iman; Concept & Meaning	69
⑫ Belief in the Prophets	73
⑬ Belief in the Books of Allah	78
⑭ Belief in the Angels	82

②

Transmission & Preservation of the Holy Qur'an

Soon after the beginning of the Revelation, Rasūlullah ﷺ made definite arrangements to preserve the Revealed Messages. We know, for instance, that in the earliest days of Islām in Makkah, Umar, (who was not yet Muslim) discovered his sister listening to a recital of Sūrah Ṭāhā. He demanded that she show him the page on which it was written. We also know that when people came to Madīnah to learn about 'Islām', "...they were provided with copies of sūrahs of the Qur'ān, to read and learn by heart (ḥifẓ)."

Thus, the Qur'ān was memorized and recorded in written form right from the beginning. In fact, the two methods of preservation were implemented simultaneously. Muslim historians state that whenever Rasūlullah ﷺ received a revelation, he called one of his literate Ṣaḥābah ؓ and dictated the text to him. Not only did he dictate the revelations to the scribes, but he also asked them to recite back to him exactly what they had written, in order to correct any mistake they might have made.

There are a number of traditions describing the efforts made and the measures taken by Rasūlullah

- ⑮ Belief in Qada & Qadr 87
- ⑯ al-Ākhirah; The Hereafter 91

Part III: Qualities of Iman

- ⑰ al-Ikhlās; Sincerity 99
- ⑱ at-Taqwā; Righteousness 104
- ⑲ at-Tawakkul; Trust in Allah 111
- ⑳ aş-Şabr & ash-Shukr; Patience & Gratitude 116

Part IV: Ibadah (Worship)

- ㉑ Meaning & Purpose 123
- ㉒ Objective of 'Ibādah 127
- ㉓ aş-Şalah; The Daily Prayers 140
- ㉔ aş-Şalah; The Daily Prayers 147
- ㉕ aş-Şawm; The Fasting 153
- ㉖ Ramaḍān; 157
The month of the Qur'ān & Charity
- ㉗ aż-Zakāh; The Obligatory Charity 165
- ㉘ aż-Zakāh; Category of the Recipients 173
- ㉙ al-Ḥajj; Pilgrimage 178
- ㉚ Jihād; The Struggle for Allah 187
- ㉛ Jihād as armed struggle 191

Qur'anic Sciences And Themes of the Qur'an

Dr. Khalid Mahmood Shaikh had been Director Institute of Islamic Studies, University of Azad Jammu and Kashmir for over a decade. Prior to that he had worked as Director Training and Research at International Islamic University, Islamabad.

He obtained his M.A. English and M.A. Arabic degrees from the University of the Punjab, Lahore in 1965 and 1982 respectively. He got advanced TOEFL from Sydney (Australia) in 1983 and Ph.D. from Punjab University Lahore in 1985. He taught Qur'anic and Hadith Sciences almost a decade at Dawah Academy, International Islamic University, Islamabad. He has also delivered a series of Lectures on Qur'an and Hadith Sciences during his official visits to Australia, Europe and America, in 1983, 1991, 1992 and from 2000 to 2004 respectively.

His published works include, "A Study of Hadith", (Chicago, U.S.A., 1994); "A Study of Quran and its Teachings", (Chicago, U.S.A., 1998); "Islam in Modern Age", "Hadith & It's Literary Style", "Hadith & Hadith Science" published by National Book Foundation, Islamabad in 1999, 2001, 2006 respectively. His book "Dawah in Modern Times" is published by Royal Book Company Karachi in 2000. This book was among the selected new acquisition in religion, University of California Berkeley Library October 2001 and was recommended for students and scholars.

Qur'anic Sciences And Themes Of the Qur'an

Dr. Khalid M. Shaikh

This book deals with the important aspects of Ulum al-Qur'an, such as revelation, the language and style of the Qur'an, and methodology of its study. It also explains the important themes of Qur'an, Iman, Ibadah, Islamic Morals. This book is highly useful for a student of Islamic Studies and for the scholar who is doing research work in the field of related topic.

ISBN 81-7435-675-4

ADAM PUBLISHERS & DISTRIBUTORS

1542, Pataudi House, Darya Ganj, New Delhi-110002

Phone: 011-23282550, 23284740, Fax: 011- 23267510

E-mail: and1542@gmail.com, www.adambooks.in

ISLAMIC BOOKBAZAR

Brought to you by: www.islamicbookbazar.com

Your friendly & reliable online book store